Type: In a sentence, who did you sell to? 12 POINTS

ERRAND 5 The scream

At a quarter past nine, go to the Merrimack Room, find the Keeper and scream. Submit the time you screamed.

Type: The time you screamed (e.g. 9:16) 12 POINTS

THE BUTLER

1. You are the Butler. At the bar you hold the House Tin, the House Book and a single bottle of the House's own tincture for “river rats.”
2. The bottle sells once a night, and only against a numbered marker handed to you by its owner. When a guest offers a marker, open the House panel on your phone, type the five-character code printed on it, and the phone tells you whether to sell. If it says sold, hand over the vial. If it says sold out, hand the marker back. The House counts every offer.
3. Whatever you do, never reveal who bought the tincture until after the body is found. After that, you may sell the answer or keep it: $75 is a fair price.
4. At a quarter past nine you take the Keeper his rye. You will find him. Scream.
5. Nobody takes the marker from you, and you take nothing from anyone: it is all deals, always.

You will be handed at the door: House receipt

Type: The code on the slip or stub 12 POINTS

THE SHERIFF

1. You are the Sheriff. The law of the night is yours: when the body is found, take charge, tell people to stand back, and keep the scene as you found it. Nothing leaves the room.
2. You hold the Coroner's Folder, sealed until the scream. Open it at the scene. It holds the physician's printed report and a scene code.
3. You hold a Nuisance Citation against Leon Gee, for being insufferable on the radio. You may serve it on him, or you may take a bribe from a go-between and tear it up. Either way, the choice is yours.
4. You may question anyone. Nobody has to answer, and the host will not rule on what they say. What you learn is yours to trade.

You will be handed at the door: Nuisance Citation
