The wall around Cassie: how to hang it

Print every page on cream or light-tan paper at 100% (not "fit to page"). Staining a page with weak tea and drying it flat makes it look 1924. Cut along the dotted lines where there are any.

Hang these in plain sight, around the portrait

- Page 2: the Farrago front page. Biggest piece. Pin it to the wall beside her.
- Page 3: the police bulletin, and three closure notices. Hang the bulletin by the Farrago. Put the three closure notices in three different places in the house (the site says the notice was posted in three places).
- Page 4: three receipts. Pin them next to her face. These are the fakes: they make Cassie look guilty.
- Page 5: the admission card, vigil card, portrait plate and note. Cut them out. Plate goes on the frame, vigil card on the table in front, admission card next to the candle. Tuck the note into the corner of the frame so just an edge shows.
- Page 6: torn page from the 1923 books. Tape it to the wall low, off to one side.

Hide this one

- The real receipt is in its own file (`real-receipt-under-portrait.pdf`). Tape it to the back of the portrait, or under it. Do not hang it on the wall.

Do not

- Put any filing codes, names of survivors, or the word "Keeper" on the wall. The pages are already written without them.

THE EVENING FARRAGO

MANCHESTER, N.H. · SATURDAY, 1 NOVEMBER 1924 · TWO CENTS

TERROR AT THE BLACK VEIL

"Massacre," Say Guests

MANCHESTER. Guests who fled the Black Veil supper club on Elm Street late last night described gunfire in the dark and blood on the floor.

No coroner was called. No ambulance came. No undertaker was summoned. No body has been found and no name has been given.

The proprietress, Miss Castello, cannot be found.

WEATHER

Colder tonight, with a chance of rain by morning. Fair and cold on Sunday.

MALLYA'S EMPORIUM
Everything under one roof. The customer is always right.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palm Court, nightly. Dancing till late. Ladies free before nine.

HUDSON MOTORS
The shiniest cars in Manchester. (No relation.)

ON THE WIRELESS

WFEA, the voice of the Merrimack Valley, signs on at six with the evening bulletin.

NAG OIL
The well that never ran dry. Ask about our shares.

MANCHESTER POLICE DEPARTMENT · BULLETIN · 2 NOVEMBER 1924

PERSON OF INTEREST

Cassandra “Cassie” Castello

Proprietress of the Black Veil, Elm Street.
Last seen on the evening of 31 October.

Anyone with information is asked to come forward.
No warrant has been issued.

— THREE COPIES BELOW: CUT APART, HANG IN THREE DIFFERENT PLACES —

NOTICE

THESE PREMISES ARE CLOSED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

By order.

NOTICE

THESE PREMISES ARE CLOSED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

By order.

NOTICE

THESE PREMISES ARE CLOSED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

— CUT APART. PIN NEXT TO HER FACE —

MERCHANTS' TRUST COMPANY · BOSTON

8 November 1924 — No. 0412

Received of Miss C. Castello, twenty dollars ($20.00), in advance, for the killing of one name on the Veil's roll, as directed. To be done quietly.

For the bearer — C. Castello

MERCHANTS' TRUST COMPANY · BOSTON

5 December 1924 — No. 0431

Received of Miss C. Castello, twenty dollars ($20.00), in advance, for the killing of one name on the Veil's roll, as directed. To be done quietly.

For the bearer — C. Castello

MERCHANTS' TRUST COMPANY · BOSTON

19 January 1925 — No. 0466

Received of Miss C. Castello, twenty dollars ($20.00), in advance, for the killing of one name on the Veil's roll, as directed. To be done quietly.

For the bearer — C. Castello

— CUT OUT ALONG THE DOTTED LINES —

Cassandra “Cassie” Castello · Proprietress · The Black Veil · 1921 –

The Black Veil

MASQUERADE

All Hallows’ Eve, 1924

Admit one · by the river door

The orchestra is admitted at ten past ten.

In Memory

Of the Black Veil,
31 October 1924.

Gone, but not named.

They have not forgotten you.

Neither have I.

THE VEIL · BOOKS · extract, 1923

Receipts: Canadian, [redacted], by the case. Protection, the [redacted], by the quarter.

Deposits, [redacted]: by draft, to the [redacted], never to the bank.

“The books show more than the club should be able to afford. In the wrong hands they show why.”

Signed: [redacted]